

2018 DONOR REPORT

We are very grateful to all of the grant donors that allow Camp ENERGY to teach healthy behaviors through instruction, demonstration, and reflection.

In addition, we are grateful for all of the individual donations of money, time, and resources that make a volunteer-based organization thrive.

GOLD

DEGENSTEIN
FOUNDATION

Charles B. Degenstein established charitable foundationS to implement his life-long desire to improve the quality of people’s lives through support for organizations with clear statements of purpose, well-defined programs, and competent leadership.

THE 1994 CHARLES B. DEGENSTEIN FOUNDATION

CHARLES B. DEGENSTEIN FOUNDATION

CHARLES & BETTY DEGENSTEIN FOUNDATION

SILVER

This program has been funded in part or in whole by Children’s Miracle Network at Geisinger. Children’s Miracle Network at Geisinger helps make miracles happen every day at Geisinger Janet Weis Children’s Hospital, Geisinger Wyoming Valley, and the Geisinger Medical Group and Pediatric Specialty Services offices throughout Pennsylvania. A nonprofit organization, it has raised funds for pediatric services, equipment and programs throughout Geisinger Health System since 1984.

SILVER

Recognizing that a community's unmet social needs can be detrimental to its health, Geisinger has announced its inaugural round of $1 million community grants.

BRONZE

Kids Kash was established by the Nicholas Wolff Foundation to ensure no camper is denied the camping opportunity due to lack of funds.

Penn Medicine awards grants for expenses directly related to community outreach activities.